P.C.

1. This is an application for parole filed by the accused through jail. Heard the advocate for the accused and learned APP for the State. The accused wants to be released on parole because his father is ill and he has to undergo for surgery. Parole was rejected to him because the surety offered by the accused was of his grand father. We do not find any reason to reject the surety of grand father. Therefore, we allow this application. The accused to be released on parole for a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of this order after accepting surety of his grand father and after complying with other requirements of law. This application is disposed off.
